Broken Creek Pop-up Choir Workshop Thowgla Hall

Sunday 12 June

12:30 – 2:30pm

Musical duo Erin and Lachlan Heycox are Broken Creek. Come along for a fun two-hour workshop where you will learn the parts to a Broken Creek song, an evocative folk song and a rip roaring sea shanty. No singing experience necessary, learn some vocal techniques that will help you feel in touch with your voice and build your confidence singing in parts. BONUS - At the end of the workshop you will be a certified member of the 'Broken Creek Chorale' and invited to join for the two songs at our album launch performance that night with free entry. Book your tickets via Eventbrite 'Broken Creek Album Launch'.

Vegan Long Table Lunch Cudgewa Hotel

Spend an afternoon celebrating the love of organic and locally grown vegetables and fruits, love of community, connection and yourself with a five-course plant-based gluten-free menu including starters and dessert from Trace Elements Wellness & Yoga local business owner, Tracey Fair. Conscious of food miles, Tracey is excited to be showcasing locally grown produce from Upper Murray based Acres & Acres' market gardens and Albury's Almar Organics in this long table lunch with a twist. $125 per head. Meat lovers don't worry, you'll enjoy the food and won't leave hungry! Contact Tracey on 0432 834 522. Bookings are essential and numbers are capped.

Broken Creek Album Launch Concert Thowgla Hall

Sunday 12 June

7pm – 10pm

Launching their new album in the beautiful Thowgla Hall and giving a special performance, Erin and Lachlan Heycox form the duo behind Broken Creek, creating intricate folk arrangements of banjo, guitar, violin and voice. This event is going to be a folk extravaganza with local legends The Mountain Alliance kicking off the night, along with special guests from the Corryong Youth Band. Drawing on diverse sources including union songs, Old-Time banjo tunes and Celtic fiddle traditions, Broken Creek rewrite old folk songs to connect them to current day issues. Families welcome, book your tickets via Eventbrite 'Broken Creek Album Launch'.

What to do with your Winter Weekends

- The Great River Road offers magical views year-round. Jump in the car and stop by your favorite caffeine or breakfast provider before taking in the countryside as the sun burns off the fog and the snow-capped mountains come into view from Walwa to Khancoban.
- Pack a thermos and curate the most delicious picnic. Plot your course to one of the stunning scenic lookouts or locations across the Towong Shire to make the most of the midday winter sunshine.
- Layer up and don't let the cold stop you. Winter offers amazing opportunities in nature, especially for keen photographers.
- Book in for lunch at one of Towong Shire's historic pubs or organise with family and friends to have a campfire and enjoy a pot of billy tea.
